

J. Levi Nichols

Lightfoot & Nichols
84 East Fourth Street
Luverne, AL 36049
(334)335-5628
levinichols@lightfootnichols.com

Levi graduated from Auburn University with a degree in Political Science. He was on the Dean's List and involved with Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity and Impact Leadership levels 1 and 2. Levi participated in an abroad program studying International Law, International Criminal Law, Death Penalty Theories, and Human Rights at Universiteit van Amsterdam. Receiving his Juris Doctor from Thomas Goode Jones School of Law in 2008, Levi was on the Dean's List and received Best Appellant Brief Legal Writing II and the Dean's Eagle Law Scholarship. He participated as Prosecutor of Honor Court, Trial Team Member, Advanced Trial Advocacy for Competition, and was a semifinalist for the J. Greg Allen Mock Trial Competition.

Before joining and becoming Partner at Lightfoot and Nichols and an Assistant District Attorney for the 2nd Judicial Circuit, Levi was a legal assistant/intern for the District Attorney of the 37th Judicial Circuit and as a Law Clerk in the Consumer, Fraud and Business Litigation area at Beasley, Allen. Outside the area of law, Levi worked as Water Sports Director in Paris, France for a year. He directed various sports including scuba, sailing, snorkeling, windsurfing and water skiing. He also worked in multicultural environments in Ixtapa and Cancun, Mexico. His affiliations include Domestic Violence Task Force Board Member, Multidisciplinary Team Member Representative for the DA's office, and a participant in the Bar's Volunteer Lawyers Program. Levi recently became a Bar Commissioner for the 2nd Judicial Circuit. Levi is licensed to practice in Florida and the District of Columbia, as well as Alabama.